

WORKSHOP DATE	TOPIC	SPEAKER
Nov 2022	Researcher engagement with stakeholders	Prof Adrian Martineau : Engagement with stakeholders in COVID-19 research Prof Angela Harden : Collaborating with stakeholders for intervention research addressing health inequalities: who, when and how?
Jan 2023	Underrepresented and how that informs research design and methods	Dr Jessica Jones Nielsen : Turning the TIDE(S): Challenges and successes in building up a diverse and inclusive research culture Prof Graham Foster : Diversity is strength – how global working has accelerated progress in curing hepatitis C
May 2023	Dissemination and impact strategies	Ronan McCloskey: Folklore, science and grabbing your audience Prof Gavin Giovannoni : Social media and research: why public and patient engagement is important?
Jun 2023	What is underrepresented and why is it important	Prof Sir Michael Marmot : Social Justice and Health Equity Social Action for Health : Community Research in East London
Jul 2023	Research culture	Faith Uwadiae: Wellcome Trust Hannah Bentley: Research culture at QMUL Aaliyah Shah: Decolonising research
Sep 2023	Developing as a reflective researcher	Dr Jessie Cooper Dr Ruth Dobson Reflection and reflexivity in research practice
Nov 2023	What is underrepresented and why is it important	Dr Amy Hunter : Importance of PPIE and rare diseases
Feb 2024	Underrepresented and how that informs research design and methods	Prof Madeline Cruice : Underrepresented” and how this informs research designs and methods: working with people with aphasia – a literally “difficult to communicate with” group
Mar 2024	Researcher engagement with stakeholders	Prof Andrew Prendergast : Researcher engagement with stakeholders – When to engage and what strategies to use – for what purpose
May 2024	Dissemination and impact strategies	Ms Rosalie Hayes : Research dissemination with community partners
Sep 2024	Developing as a reflective researcher	Dr Tanvi Rai : What would it take to meaningfully attend to ethnicity and race in health research?
Nov 2024	What is underrepresented and why is it important	Prof Sebastian Gaigg : Developing more inclusive research methods for children with complex support needs
Jan 2025	Underrepresented and how that informs research design and methods	Prof Chloe Orkin : Achieving inclusion of under-represented groups in trials and studies
Feb 2025	Researcher engagement with stakeholders	Dr Veline L’Esperance: From Research to Impact: A Collaborative Pathway for Stakeholder Engagement
May 2025	Dissemination and impact strategies	Dr Alison Thomson : Dissemination and impact strategies
Jun 2025	Research culture	Prof Jonathan Grigg : Research culture

Sep 2025	Developing as a reflective researcher	Prof Li Chan Dr Sasha Howard Developing as a reflective researcher
Nov 2025	What is underrepresented and why is it important	Prof Richard Alderslade : What is underrepresented and why is it important?
Jan 2026	Dissemination and impact strategies	Prof Elijah Behr : Translation of research to practice: Sudden death and genetic risk to families
Feb 2026	Underrepresented and how that informs research design and methods	Prof Lucy Henry : Underrepresented and how that informs research design and methods
Apr 2026	Research engagement with stakeholders	Dr Angela Loyse : Engaging stakeholders in global health research to end AIDS deaths
Jun 2026	Research culture	Prof Amrita Ahluwalia Prof Deborah Baines Research culture
Sep 2026	Developing as a reflective researcher	Prof Charles Marshall Prof Rohini Mathur Developing as a reflective researcher